Entrepreneurship & Innovation Association News

Guest Speaker Series: Adam Elias

Monroe Township High School's Entrepreneurship and Innovation Association hosted Mr. Adam Elias as a guest speaker on Thursday, November 2, 2023.

Mr. Elias is a multi-passionate entrepreneur from Monroe Township and an avid supporter of the MTHS Entrepreneurship program. Mr. Elias is an immigrant, husband, and father. He studied law at Rutgers University and is an attorney by trade, previously working as a prosecutor for the state of New Jersey. Mr. Elias is a successful entrepreneur who owns a law firm and two coffee shops, one in Jamesburg and Hamilton among his many ventures.

Mr. Elias spoke to the high schoolers about his journey of becoming a business owner and offered them advice for their ventures. Taking the club members through his career, Elias shared how the different jobs he held led to him opening his law firm and founding his many other ventures.

During his presentation, Mr. Elias emphasized the importance of being determined. He urged students to pursue their ideas with passion and start as soon as they can, no matter how imperfect the current plan may be. Members of the Entrepreneurship and Innovation club gained an abundance of practical advice to navigate the business world from Mr. Elias.

Mr. Elias' presentation was the first in the monthly Speaker Series which is open to all MTHS students. For more information, please contact EIA Advisor Marina Vitalin at
